

Social Enterprise

In alignment with our core business philosophy, xantura is committed to:

- Providing development opportunities and experience to young people.
- Supporting youth development projects

In alignment with our core business principles, xantura is committed to actively looking for ways in which we can provide development opportunities and experience to young people in the communities in which we work.

At present we have three active work experience programmes, for 20 to 24 year olds

Project management programme

Candidates should be at least 21 years of age and have an interest in understanding how to organize and deliver complex business and IT projects.

Work experience would involve understanding standard project management methodologies and supporting the delivery of active client engagements.

Programme duration: 3 months

Media and design programme

Candidates should be in their final year or a recent graduate from a media and/or design related course and have some practical experience in video production and editing.

Work experience would involve producing public information videos for local government clients.

Programme duration: 3 months

If you are interested in participating in any of these programmes please send and your CV to enquiries@xantura.com.
